N. B. A Society (called The SOCIETY of Stewards and Subscribers for Maintaining and Educating POOR ORPHANS of the CLERGY till of Age to be put APPRENTICE) was formed in 1749, as a preparatory Institution, and is supported by the annual Subscriptions and Benefactions of Ladies and Gentlemen, to educate, clothe, and maintain the Sons and Daughters, Orphans of distressed Clergymen, till of Age to be recommended to the said Stewards, to be apprenticed, according to the 17th Article of their printed Constitutions: Which Constitutions (with a List of the Subscribers) are annually printed and given away, at the Anniversary Meeting at St. Paul's Cathedral, and on the Feast-Day, at Merchant-Taylor's-Hall—or may be had of CLEMENT SAMUEL STRONG, Esq. Treasurer of the said Society, at his House in Pancras-Lane, Queen-Street, Cheap-side.

MEM. The Secretary thinks it incumbent on him to acquaint the Stewards and the Public in general, that it appears by the Will of the late Rev. Dr. John Ratcliffe, Master of Pembroke-College in the University of Oxford, proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, August 18, 1775, that, from and after the Decease of his Sister, the Sum of Three Pounds, the Interest of One Hundred Pounds in the Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, is annually to be given to the Stewards of the Charity for the Sons of the Clergy, as an Addition to their Collection at St. Paul's.

The Secretary, with much Pleasure, informs the Benefactors and Well-wishers to this Charity, that the Sum of £. 1000, bequeathed by the late Margaret Dongworth, of the City of Durham, Spinster, has been paid into the Hands of the Stewards, and placed by them in the 3 per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Names of his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as President, and Sir John Skynner, Knight, as Vice-President, of the Corporation for the Relief of the poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, directing the Dividend of the aforesaid Sum of £. 1000 (making 1626*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.* principal Stock) to be annually applied to the good Purposes of this Charity: and which Bequests, with the Addition of £. 100 Stock lately transferred into the Names of the Trustees beforementioned, as the Benefaction of a Person unknown,—Dr. Ratcliffe's Legacy of £. 100,—and £. 500 3 per Cent. Consols by the Executors of the late Lady Grant, make the Sum upon which the Dividends in future will arise, £. 2426*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.*—In addition to the above, £. 100 Bank Stock, the Legacy of the late John Jackson, Esq. has been transferred.—John Julius Angersteign, one of the late Stewards, has, since the last Anniversary, transferred £. 100 Consol. Ann. as a Benefaction, in Addition to the above Sums; and the Rev. Thomas Iliffe, Executor of the Will of the late Rebecca Bryars, has transferred £. 5 per Annum, Long Ann. in like Manner.

Benefactions to this Charity will be thankfully received by JOHN BACON, Esq. at the First-Fruits-Office, in the Temple, Secretary to the Stewards.
